

Q After the notice was served did you move out?

A Yes, I moved out in 30 days.

Q You were asked about the repairs on the property; did you make any repairs?

A After I moved away?

Q Yes? A. No, I never made none.

Q About the fencing - did you have any fences put up?

A Since when?

Q After you moved away? A. No.

Q What about the taxes; who paid the taxes?

A I paid the taxes in 1932, and he started paying them in 1933.

Q Why did he pay the taxes? (Objection)

A That was our agreement: he was to pay the taxes and keep the place up to live there.

(Mr. Clapp): Object and ask that it be stricken out.

Q Was that agreement made when he bought the property?

(Objection)

A That was made when he come down and bought the two pieces, yes, sir. We hadn't made no agreement till after we made the deal.

Q. What about this transaction; where did it take place?

A Sir?

Q. Your sale of these two pieces to Everett?

A On the Rock Spring farm.

Q I mean where did the actual conveyance or the transaction take place?

A Up on the cow lot. I was on my way to milk when he went along with me.

Q Who prepared the deed for it?

A His lawyer.

Q Who was his lawyer?

A I don't know now. I don't remember.

Q Here in Frederick? A. Yes.
